

German Russian Kindertag

August 1, 2018

Join us for Kindertag—Youth Day—celebrating German Russian traditions!

The American Historical Society of Germans from Russia International Convention, in conjunction with the local AHSGR Sunflower Chapter, and the Ellis County Historical Society, are pleased to offer a day filled with activities highlighting the culture of German Russians from the past and present. Experienced teachers and volunteers will present educational material while participants perform hands-on activities.

Activities include: sauerkraut/butter making, dancing, traditional games, German language, cooking German food, experiencing life on a farm, tour the Volga German Haus, and more!

When: Wednesday, August 1, 2018, 8:45am to 3:25pm

Where: Ellis County Historical Society, 100 West 7th Street, Hays, KS 67601

For specific questions, contact Lee Dobratz at 785-628-2624 or director@echshays.org. Registration is $10 per child and includes all supplies, activities, and lunch.

Parents, please have a look at the International Convention offerings. Topics focus on experiences of German Russians, both those in Russia and emigrants to other countries. Visit AHSGR.org for details.

Girl Scouts please register on the Girl Scout website in order to earn a badge.

Please detach lower portion and mail with payment.

German Russian Kindertag Registration deadline is July 16, 2018
